Proud of Erewash

- Long Eaton, once popular for its lace making now has a world-wide reputation for its upholstery and furniture making and is now known as the UK Centre of Quality Upholstery Manufacture. Around 2,000 people in the area work in these businesses today.
- Weleda has had its UK headquarters in Ilkeston since 1971. The multinational company grows organic herbs locally and produces natural skin care products and pharmaceuticals and has a wellbeing store in the town.
- Severn Trent Water, based in Newthorpe and other locations in Derbyshire and Nottinghamshire, is looking for people who can take on challenges linked to the impact of climate change. The company offers apprenticeship and graduate programmes.
