

Living and working in Nottingham

2022

WHAT NEXT?

Which job areas are growing?

These are some of the job areas predicted to grow in Nottingham:

Professional Services

Creative & digital

Education

Life sciences

Tourism and hospitality

Transport and Logistics

Health and Care

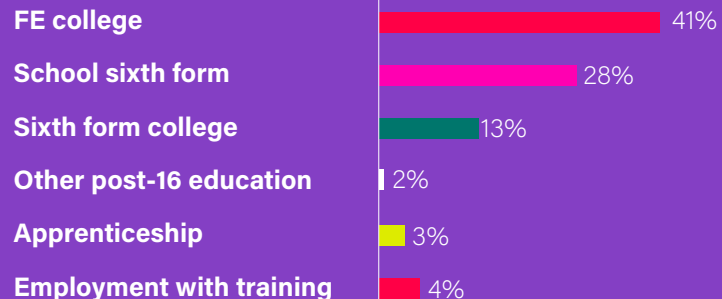

Food & drink manufacturing

Low carbon

What did last year's Year 11s do next?

Boots | Arup | Capital One |
Experian | Games Workshop |
Paul Smith | Speedo | BBC |
Nottingham University Hospitals
NHS Trust | E.On |
Domestic and General

Level Up!

The higher the qualifications you have, the more jobs you'll be able to apply for. Here's how the qualifications levels in Nottingham compare with the UK average:

How much do people earn?

These are the average earnings for people living (but not necessarily working) in Nottingham and people working (but not necessarily living) in Nottingham.

Nottingham UK

Living in: £25,200 (Nottingham) | £31,285 (UK)

Working in: £28,050 (Nottingham) | £31,285 (UK)

Proud of Nottingham

- Nottingham has a strong science heritage and is home to hundreds of companies working at the cutting-edge of discovery.
- As well as being a city renowned for its innovation, Nottingham is also famous for some iconic designs. The Raleigh Chopper bicycle, Speedo Fastskin swimsuits and Paul Smith tailored suits were all designed in Nottingham.
- Cellist Sheku Kanneh-Mason grew up in Nottingham and attended The Trinity School. In 2016 he won BBC's Young Musician of the Year and went on to perform at the wedding of Prince Harry and Meghan Markle at Windsor Castle. He now travels all over the world playing music!

Brought to you by:

The What Next? programme is part-funded by the European Social Fund (ESF)

Futures