Proud of South Derbyshire

- Did you know that local employer Toyota has first-rate environmental credentials? As a sustainable plant, it uses renewable energy, reduces waste through innovative technologies and cares for the natural environment around it.
- David Brailsford, coach for the highly successful Great Britain Olympic Cycling Team from 2004-2012, was born in Shardlow.
- Founder of the UK's first travel agency, Thomas Cook, was born in Melbourne in 1808. He worked as an assistant market gardener, then cabinet maker before moving to Leicester and growing his travel business.
- Rowland Ordish, civil engineer, was also born in Melbourne. He was involved in the design of many famous landmarks including St Pancras railway station roof, the dome of the Royal Albert Hall and the roof of Derby's Market Hall.
